DRUMS

The musical score is arranged in five systems, each representing a different instrument. The first system is for the Vocal part, showing two measures of rests. The second system is for Guitar I, with a treble clef and a C-clef on the first line. It shows two measures of rests followed by two measures of chords with natural and grace notes. The third system is for Guitar II, with a treble clef and a C-clef on the first line. It shows two measures of rests followed by two measures of a sixteenth-note arpeggiated pattern. The fourth system is for Bass, with a bass clef and a C-clef on the first line. It shows two measures of rests followed by two measures of a sixteenth-note pattern. The fifth system is for Drums, with a C-clef on the first line. It shows two measures of a drum pattern with asterisks and eighth notes, followed by three measures of rests.
